

Entry prices for the BEMER Cyclassics drop - registration now open

Germany's biggest cycling event will take place again on September 8. More than 10,000 cyclists are expected to take part in the BEMER Cyclassics in Hamburg. Starting today, entries can be booked at www.cyclassics-hamburg.de. The highlight: while prices are rising everywhere, Cyclassics fans will be surprised with lower prices just before Christmas.

The Cyclassics experience starts at just 65 euros. For the next four weeks, until January 22, the entry can be booked at a particularly favorable warm-up rate. But it's not just the attractive price that is creating anticipation for the cycling summer: fan-friendly and transparent fixed rates are now available at www.cyclassics-hamburg.de. Booking or processing fees are a thing of the past.

If you want to take part, you can choose between the "Cyclassics 60" or the "Cyclassics 100". Two attractive routes, which after the start on the Kennedy Bridge lead over 60 or 100 kilometers through Hamburg and neighboring Schleswig-Holstein, will make your racing bike heart beat faster. The highlight for every starter is the finale, which awaits on Mönckebergstraße in the heart of the city after Elbchausee and Reeperbahn.

New next year: More flexibility at the start! Anyone who has booked an entry for the Cyclassics 100 distance, but doesn't have the form for the long distance, can start spontaneously on the Cyclassics 60 distance without any complications and without any rebooking fees.

The 27th edition of the BEMER Cyclassics once again promises a spectacular racing bike experience. Ambitious regular cyclists who are setting themselves a new goal, as well as amateur athletes planning their racing debut, will get their money's worth at the BEMER Cyclassics. Closed routes and an unforgettable atmosphere make the race a pleasure.
